INDEX GUIDE

This index provides an analysis of legislative committee proceedings conducted in English or French as spoken by the participants. Translations are not provided in either language.

Effective with the opening of the Second Session of the 35th Parliament, Hansard issues and pages are numbered according to session rather than calendar year. Lists of committee issues, dates and page numbers for the Second Session are on pages 2, 3 and 4.

Entries are cross-referenced and alphabetically arranged in two sections:

Subject index – The main entry in this section is a subject heading which may be followed by: secondary headings, see references or a listing of members who spoke on the subject. Subject headings that require neither secondary headings nor speakers are followed by page numbers only. Typical entries in the subject index appear as follows:

Committee, Legislative Assembly
Clerk of the House semi-annual review M45-51
Legislative building restoration M74-81

Grants, students
See Loans/grants, students

Loans/grants, students
Carr F393-4; Cunningham S79

Divisions, committee

Speaker index – The main entry in this section is a member's name followed by a listing of subject/s spoken on by that member with corresponding committee page numbers.

Prefix letters appearing before page numbers refer to the following standing committees:

A – Government Agencies
B – Ombudsman

GUIDE DE L'USAGER

Cet index croisé présente une analyse des affaires législatives des comités en anglais ou en français selon la langue parlée par les participants, sans traduction vers l'une ou l'autre langue.

Avec l'ouverture de la deuxième session de la 35<sup>e</sup> législature, les fascicules du journal des débats et les pages sont numérotés selon la session au lieu de l'année civile. Les bilans des fascicules, des dates et des pages pertinents de la deuxième session figurent aux pages 99 et 100 de l'index.

Les entrées d'index sont inscrites par ordre alphabétique sous deux rubriques :

L'index des sujets : l'entrée principale sous cette rubrique est un descripteur qui peut être suivi par des sous-titres, des références à d'autres sujets ou le nom de l'intervenant, tels que :

Comité, affaires sociales, témoins
Réseau ontarien des services de garde
francophones S58-60
Équité d'emploi
voir Formation
Formation
Winner J265-6

Certains descripteurs, notamment dans l'index de langue anglaise, comme la mise aux voix, n'exigent ni sous-titres ni noms d'intervenants et sont simplement suivis d'une page indexée.

L'index d'intervenants : l'entrée principale sous cette rubrique est le nom du député ou de la députée, suivi des sujets sur lesquels il ou elle s'est prononcé(e) et des pages correspondantes.

Les lettres précédant les pages indexées identifient les comités suivants :

A – Organismes gouvernementaux
B – Ombudsman
E – Budget des dépenses
F – Finances et affaires économiques
G – Affaires gouvernementales
J – Administration de la justice
M – Assemblée législative
P – Comptes publics
R – Développement des ressources
S – Affaires sociales

E-11	E-150	1	57	Hon Mr Silipo: Almost mystical, you could say. As Mr Beer noted, we know that the references back to I believe 1975, when the share between the province and the local boards collectively was— The Chair: Damned good ones; Tory years, as I recall. Hon Mr Silipo: Yes. It went downhill from there, even under the Tories and continuing under the Liberals, and then moved up slightly. We're trying to at least hold it where it is until we fix the thing. As we look at that issue, it seems to me there are a couple of useful principles to keep in mind. One of those is that there needs to be a point in time at which we say that in fact the province should be taking on the greater share of the cost of educating our young people. At the same time, I would certainly agree with the comments Mr Beer made, that that should not in fact preclude local school boards from continuing to have a role in the question of taxation, because I do agree that taxation and accountability in terms of elected bodies are also significant things that we want to continue to exist. As we look at some of those issues, that's something we will try to keep in mind. The issue that Mrs Cunningham has talked about today and on other occasions, the link between education and training, although I didn't talk at all or very much about it in my opening comments, is one that I also believe in very much. I think what has to happen is that the issue of training has to become more significant—and I think the government has shown its interest in that happening through the OTAB process and through other initiatives that are being developed and nurtured—but at the same time we have to also link seriously education and training in a way that moves us away from what we have seen happen historically, which is that education in the traditional concept has been left for students who for one reason or another did well academically and training was what was left over for the rest of the kids. I think there have to be significant changes made to that approach so that most, if not all, of our young people are exposed to both training and education.

In my own upbringing, I can certainly recall how I spent my days as an elementary student in a small village in Italy. It was mornings in school and afternoons at the tailor shop, and that wasn't uncommon as an experience that people went through. I'm not suggesting that's a solution, but I think those are some of the things we are doing and need to expand upon in terms of exposing more

F-9	F-145	24	4	Mr Otterman: I would just comment that when you say the books are cooked, I think you've got to be careful of that, too. It's a little generic. If you're talking about the budget and the estimates therein, fine.
-----	-------	----	---	---

Mr Stockwell: That's what I'm talking about: They're cooked.

Mr Otterman: But if you're talking about the financial statements of this province, they haven't been cooked.

Mr Stockwell: That's what I'm talking about, the budget: The numbers are cooked.

Mr Otterman: Okay.

J-9	J-69	2	36	Mr Winninger: Exactly. So it's a problem, but it's not an insurmountable problem, since the large majority are signed at the office, where you're going to have legal or paralegal staff right there anyway to witness.
-----	------	---	----	---

Mr Milne: Our concern is not so much in our office because, for example, in our office there are enough lawyers that you can find someone else and not place the burden on our staff, which we wouldn't do. Our concern is more the situation of the urgency of signing a power before an operation, which we rush off to hospitals to do, to attend in one's home and that sort of thing. It's the other 30%, or whatever that percentage is, that is our greatest concern.

Mr Winninger: I don't want to prolong it, but I can remember even as an articling student having to traipse along with the lawyer to witness the power of attorney at the hospital. That's probably not going to change.

Mr Sterling: Is there anything in here about the competency of witnesses?

The Chair: I'm certain that our witnesses are quite competent. Further questions or comments? Seeing none, Mr Milne, Ms Campbell, on behalf of the committee, I'd like to thank you for taking the time out this afternoon to give us your presentation.

Mr Sterling: We're only halfway through, aren't we?

Ms Dona Campbell: You've heard only Mr Milne.

The Chair: Oh, we're only halfway through. Sorry about that.

Ms Campbell: Mr Milne spoke to you concerning only the property issues and he confined his comments to Bill 108. I will be addressing the personal care issues in both Bills 108 and 109.

In general, my committee was pleased with the proposals for amendment to the legislation, but we found that concerns addressed in our earlier submission to you had not been looked at and that new concerns were raised by the language of the amendments themselves.

I've provided a further written submission to you and I want just to highlight some of the difficulties we perceive with the legislation, as amended. I want to deal first with Bill 108, which is the Substitute Decisions Act. We find the criteria for triggering a finding of incapacity under this bill quite troubling.

agreeing to sit for five weeks because the government House leader limited the hearings to five weeks. What is it that you're frightened of hearing from Mr Kirkby? We've got 25 minutes left. We can hear from Mr Kirkby now and we still will finish by 9 o'clock. Why is it that you don't want to hear from somebody? Is it a viewpoint that you're concerned about having aired in a public forum?

The Chair: Further discussion or debate?

Mrs Marland: We'd like a recorded vote, Mr Chairman.

The Chair: One moment, please.

Mr Turnbull: Yes, I would like a recorded vote.

The Chair: You didn't want to close?

Mr Turnbull: He's not a walk-on, and that was the agreement that was made by the people. We have plugged in those people, as we've gone along, to my knowledge, who've been on the waiting list. He is on the waiting list, so he's not a walk-on. He attended all last night. I was curious, because I had never met the gentleman before. I went and introduced myself last night. He said he was the author of this brief, and it's from a worker's point of view, about his right not to be in a union. I think we should hear that.

The Chair: Thank you, sir. About to call the question.

Mrs Marland: A recorded vote.

The committee divided on Mr Turnbull's motion, which was negatived on the following vote:

Ayes—5

Marland, McGuinty, Offer, Phillips, Turnbull.

Nays—6

Hayes, Hope, Huget, Murdock (Sudbury), Ward (Brantford), Wood.

The Chair: I want to thank the committee members for their cooperation during the course of today. I want to thank the participants who presented their views to the committee. I want to thank those people who expressed interest in the committee's process by attending here at Queen's Park and watching this committee do its work, and those who watched this on the legislative channel.

I want to thank the staff, the research staff and Hansard staff as well as the clerk's office staff, who were crucial to the smooth operation of this committee, and of course the French-language translation people, who have worked very hard throughout the course of the day, even on occasion when people spoke simultaneously, which made simultaneous translation all that much more difficult, and of course the legislative broadcast people, who do an outstanding job of recording and broadcasting this and who will make videotapes of presentations in Beta and VHS, I believe.

In addition, of course, I thank people like Ms Marland who joined us throughout the day. Thank you very kindly, people. Take care. We're adjourned until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

The committee adjourned at 2043.

INDEX GUIDE

This index provides an analysis of legislative committee proceedings conducted in English or French as spoken by the participants. Translations are not provided in either language.

Hansard issues and pages are numbered according to session. Lists of committee issues, dates and page numbers for the third session (35th Parliament) follow on pages 2 through 6.

Entries are cross-referenced and alphabetically arranged in two sections, the Subject Index and the Speaker Index.

Subject index – The main entry in this section is a subject heading which may be followed by: secondary headings, see references or a listing of members who spoke on the subject. Subject headings that require neither secondary headings nor speakers are followed by page numbers only. Typical entries in the subject index appear as follows:

Chair's rulings/statements

Committee schedules/agenda A1169-71

Members'/ministers' salaries F907

Photo radar

See Speed limits/enforcement

Social contract/negotiations

Caplan E739-40; Harris F1014-5

Divisions, committee

E132-3; F738-9

Speaker index – The main entry in this section is a member's name followed by a listing of subject/s spoken on by that member with corresponding committee page numbers.

This index also includes alphabetical lists of witnesses (individuals/organizations) and committee staff with corresponding page references indicating their participation in committee proceedings.

Prefix letters appearing before page numbers refer to the following standing committees:

- A – Government Agencies
- B – Ombudsman
- E – Estimates
- F – Finance and Economic Affairs
- G – General Government
- J – Administration of Justice
- M – Legislative Assembly

GUIDE DE L'USAGER

Cet index croisé présente une analyse des affaires législatives des comités en anglais ou en français selon la langue parlée par les participants, sans traduction vers l'une ou l'autre langue.

Les fascicules du Journal des débats et les pages sont numérotés selon la session. Les bilans des fascicules, des dates et des pages pertinents de la troisième session figurent aux pages 7 à 11 de l'index.

Les entrées d'index sont inscrites par ordre alphabétique sous deux rubriques :

L'index des sujets : l'entrée principale sous cette rubrique est un descripteur qui peut être suivi par des sous-titres, des références à d'autres sujets ou le nom de l'intervenant, tels que :

Comité, affaires sociales, témoins

Réseau ontarien des services de garde franco-phones S58-60

Équité d'emploi

voir Formation

Formation

Winnipeg J265-6

Certains descripteurs, notamment dans l'index de langue anglaise, comme la mise aux voix, n'exigent ni sous-titres ni noms d'intervenants et sont simplement suivis d'une page indexée.

L'index des intervenants : l'entrée principale sous cette rubrique est le nom du député ou de la députée, suivi des sujets sur lesquels il ou elle s'est prononcé(e) et les pages correspondantes.

L'index comprend également les noms des organisations, les témoins et le personnel de comité participant, par ordre alphabétique avec les pages correspondantes.

Les lettres précédant les pages indexées identifient les comités suivants :

- A – Organismes gouvernementaux
- B – Ombudsman
- E – Budget des dépenses
- F – Finances et affaires économiques
- G – Affaires gouvernementales
- J – Administration de la justice
- M – Assemblée législative
- P – Comptes publics
- R – Développement des ressources
- S – Affaires sociales
- T – Règlements et projets de loi privés

Vous obtiendrez de plus amples renseignements auprès des employés de l'index du Journal des débats en composant le 416-325-7411 ou le 325-3708 ; télécopieur 416-325-7430.
